Blue Fire is the second installment in the Healing Wars books. While I really enjoyed the first book, The Shifter , I will admit Blue Fire left a little to be desired. Nya's powers have continued to develop since book one, and she is struggling as she tries to use her new abilities in the right way.

Book Review: Blue Fire (The Healing Wars Book 2) by Janice Hardy. To some she's a fugitive, to others she's a hero, but all Nya wants to do is save the Takers and keep herself and her friends safe from those who are after her. But then Nya ends up with the last group of people she wanted to be with and learns things she never knew about her own family, and things only get more complicated as she comes closer to figuring out the Duke's plan.
