Something tells us Morgan customers don't invest in the "Best Body in the Business", then maintain it with discount parts and "questionable" service. That just wouldn't make sense! And since low-quality replacement parts have a way of costing more in the long-run, maybe it's worth looking to the industry leader for quality parts and service.

Hi guys I called Heartland today to order some parts. Nothing big, a couple wheel bearing sets and a fender for my BH. The lady I talked to said they don't take orders over the phone, but I should got to Eastcoastparts@heartland.com and order them on that web site. Well spent the better part of an hour trying to find a link that will take me to Heartland parts, but no luck.
